

Silicone Plastinates - Torso Specimens - Posterior Abdominal Wall

Posterior Abdominal Wall and Male Pelvis

HP0412

- with stumps of lower extremities
- with the posterior part of the diaphragm, frontal abdominal wall and most of organs of the abdominal cavity are removed
- includes organs of the urogenital system with its vasculature
- muscles of the posterior abdominal wall, arteries, main veins and nerves of the retroperitoneal space and pelvis are preserved
- pubic symphysis, pelvic diaphragm and rectum are removed to expose organs of the Urogenital system from all aspects
- dissection shows different layers of muscles of the back, pelvis and proximal parts of low extremities
- stand included

